

Inside the $293 Billion Financial Fortress

The Mormon Empire:
How a secretive
church built more
wealth than some nations.

No public financial disclosures.

A massive wealth-generating machine.

$293 Billion Net Worth

(End of 2024)

Annual GDP

Every NBA
Team...
Bought
Twice

Growth Velocity: Added $28 BILLION to their wealth in just 12 months.

Data pieced together
by The Widow's Mite
Report from SEC filings
and property records
due to extreme
church secrecy.

The Blueprint of a Wealth Machine

The Tithing Engine: No Pay, No Temple

17.5 million
members worldwide.

10% of
Gross Income

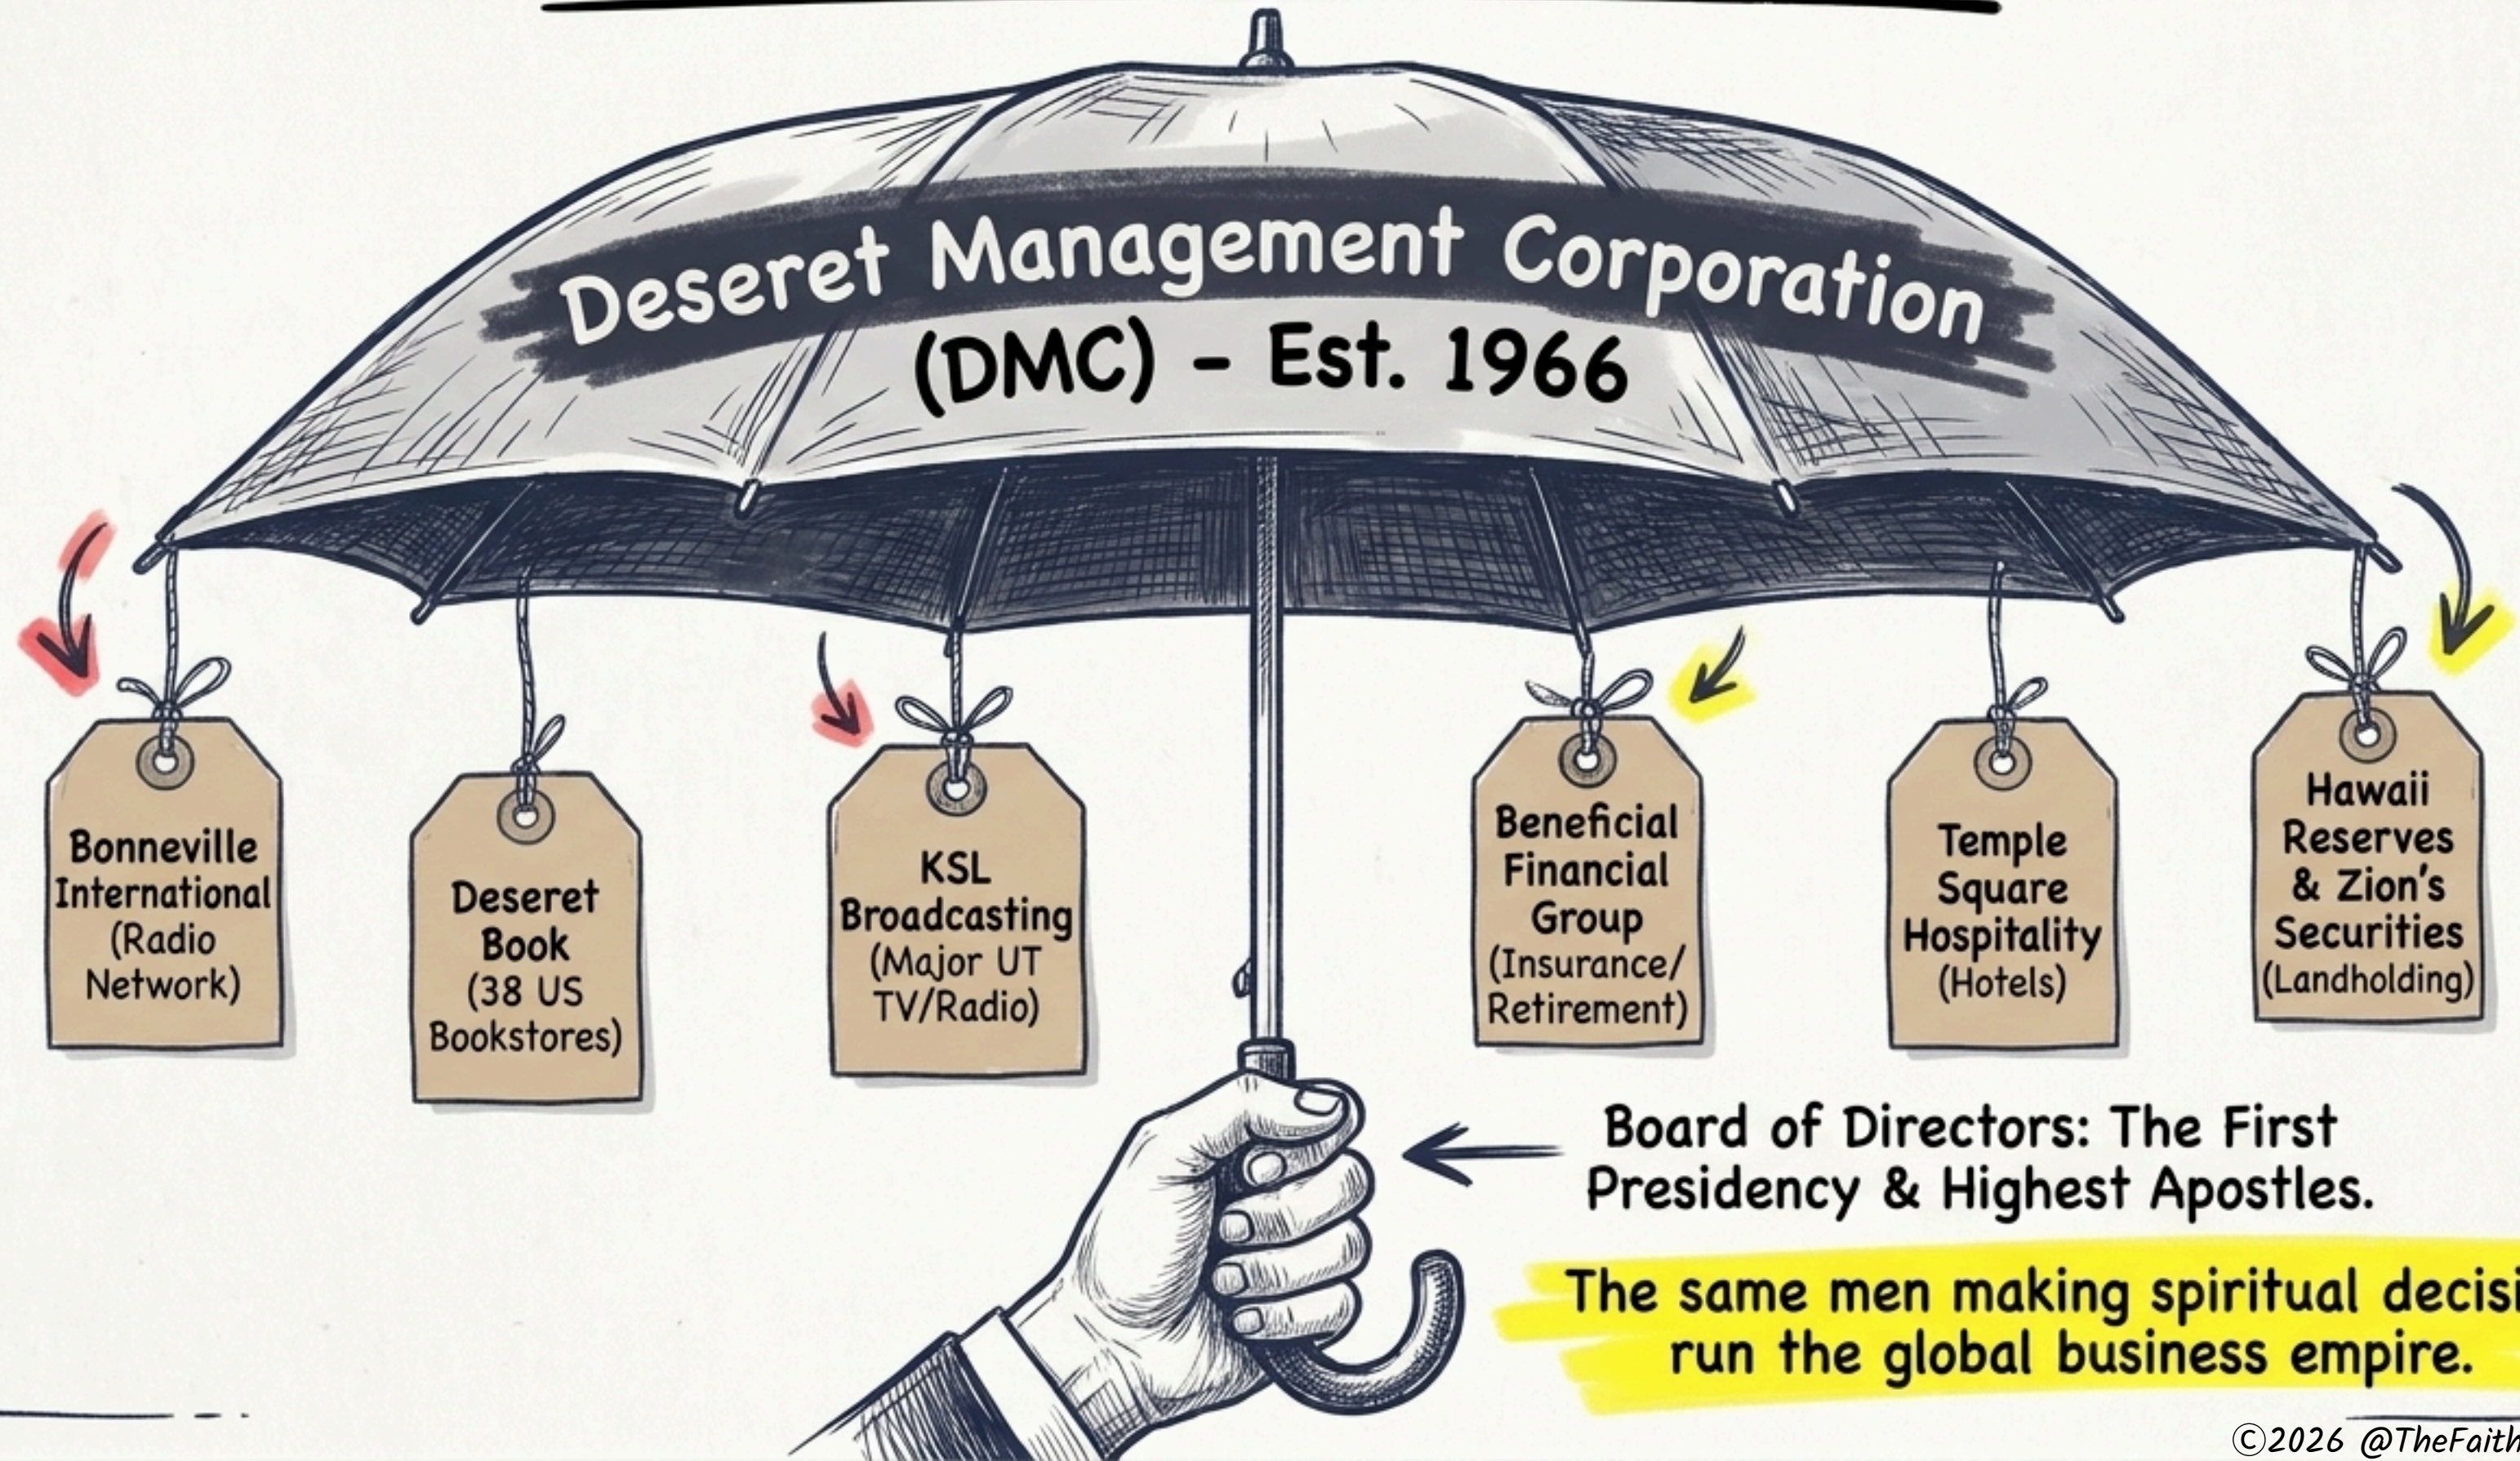

Temple Entry Ticket

Payment is mandatory for full
salvation in Mormon
theology.

Estimated $8B
in 2024 alone.

The For-Profit Umbrella

The Real Estate Portfolio & The $1.5B Mall

One of the largest private U.S. landowners (1M+ acres of ranches/farms via hidden subsidiaries).

The Huntsman Lawsuit: Did tithing pay for a luxury mall?
The church claims they only used "reserve funds"
(which originated from tithing).
Billionaire heir James Huntsman sued over his $5M tithe.
The courts sided with the church in 2025, but the controversy continues.

The Turbocharger: Ensign Peak Advisors

The Shell Company Scheme

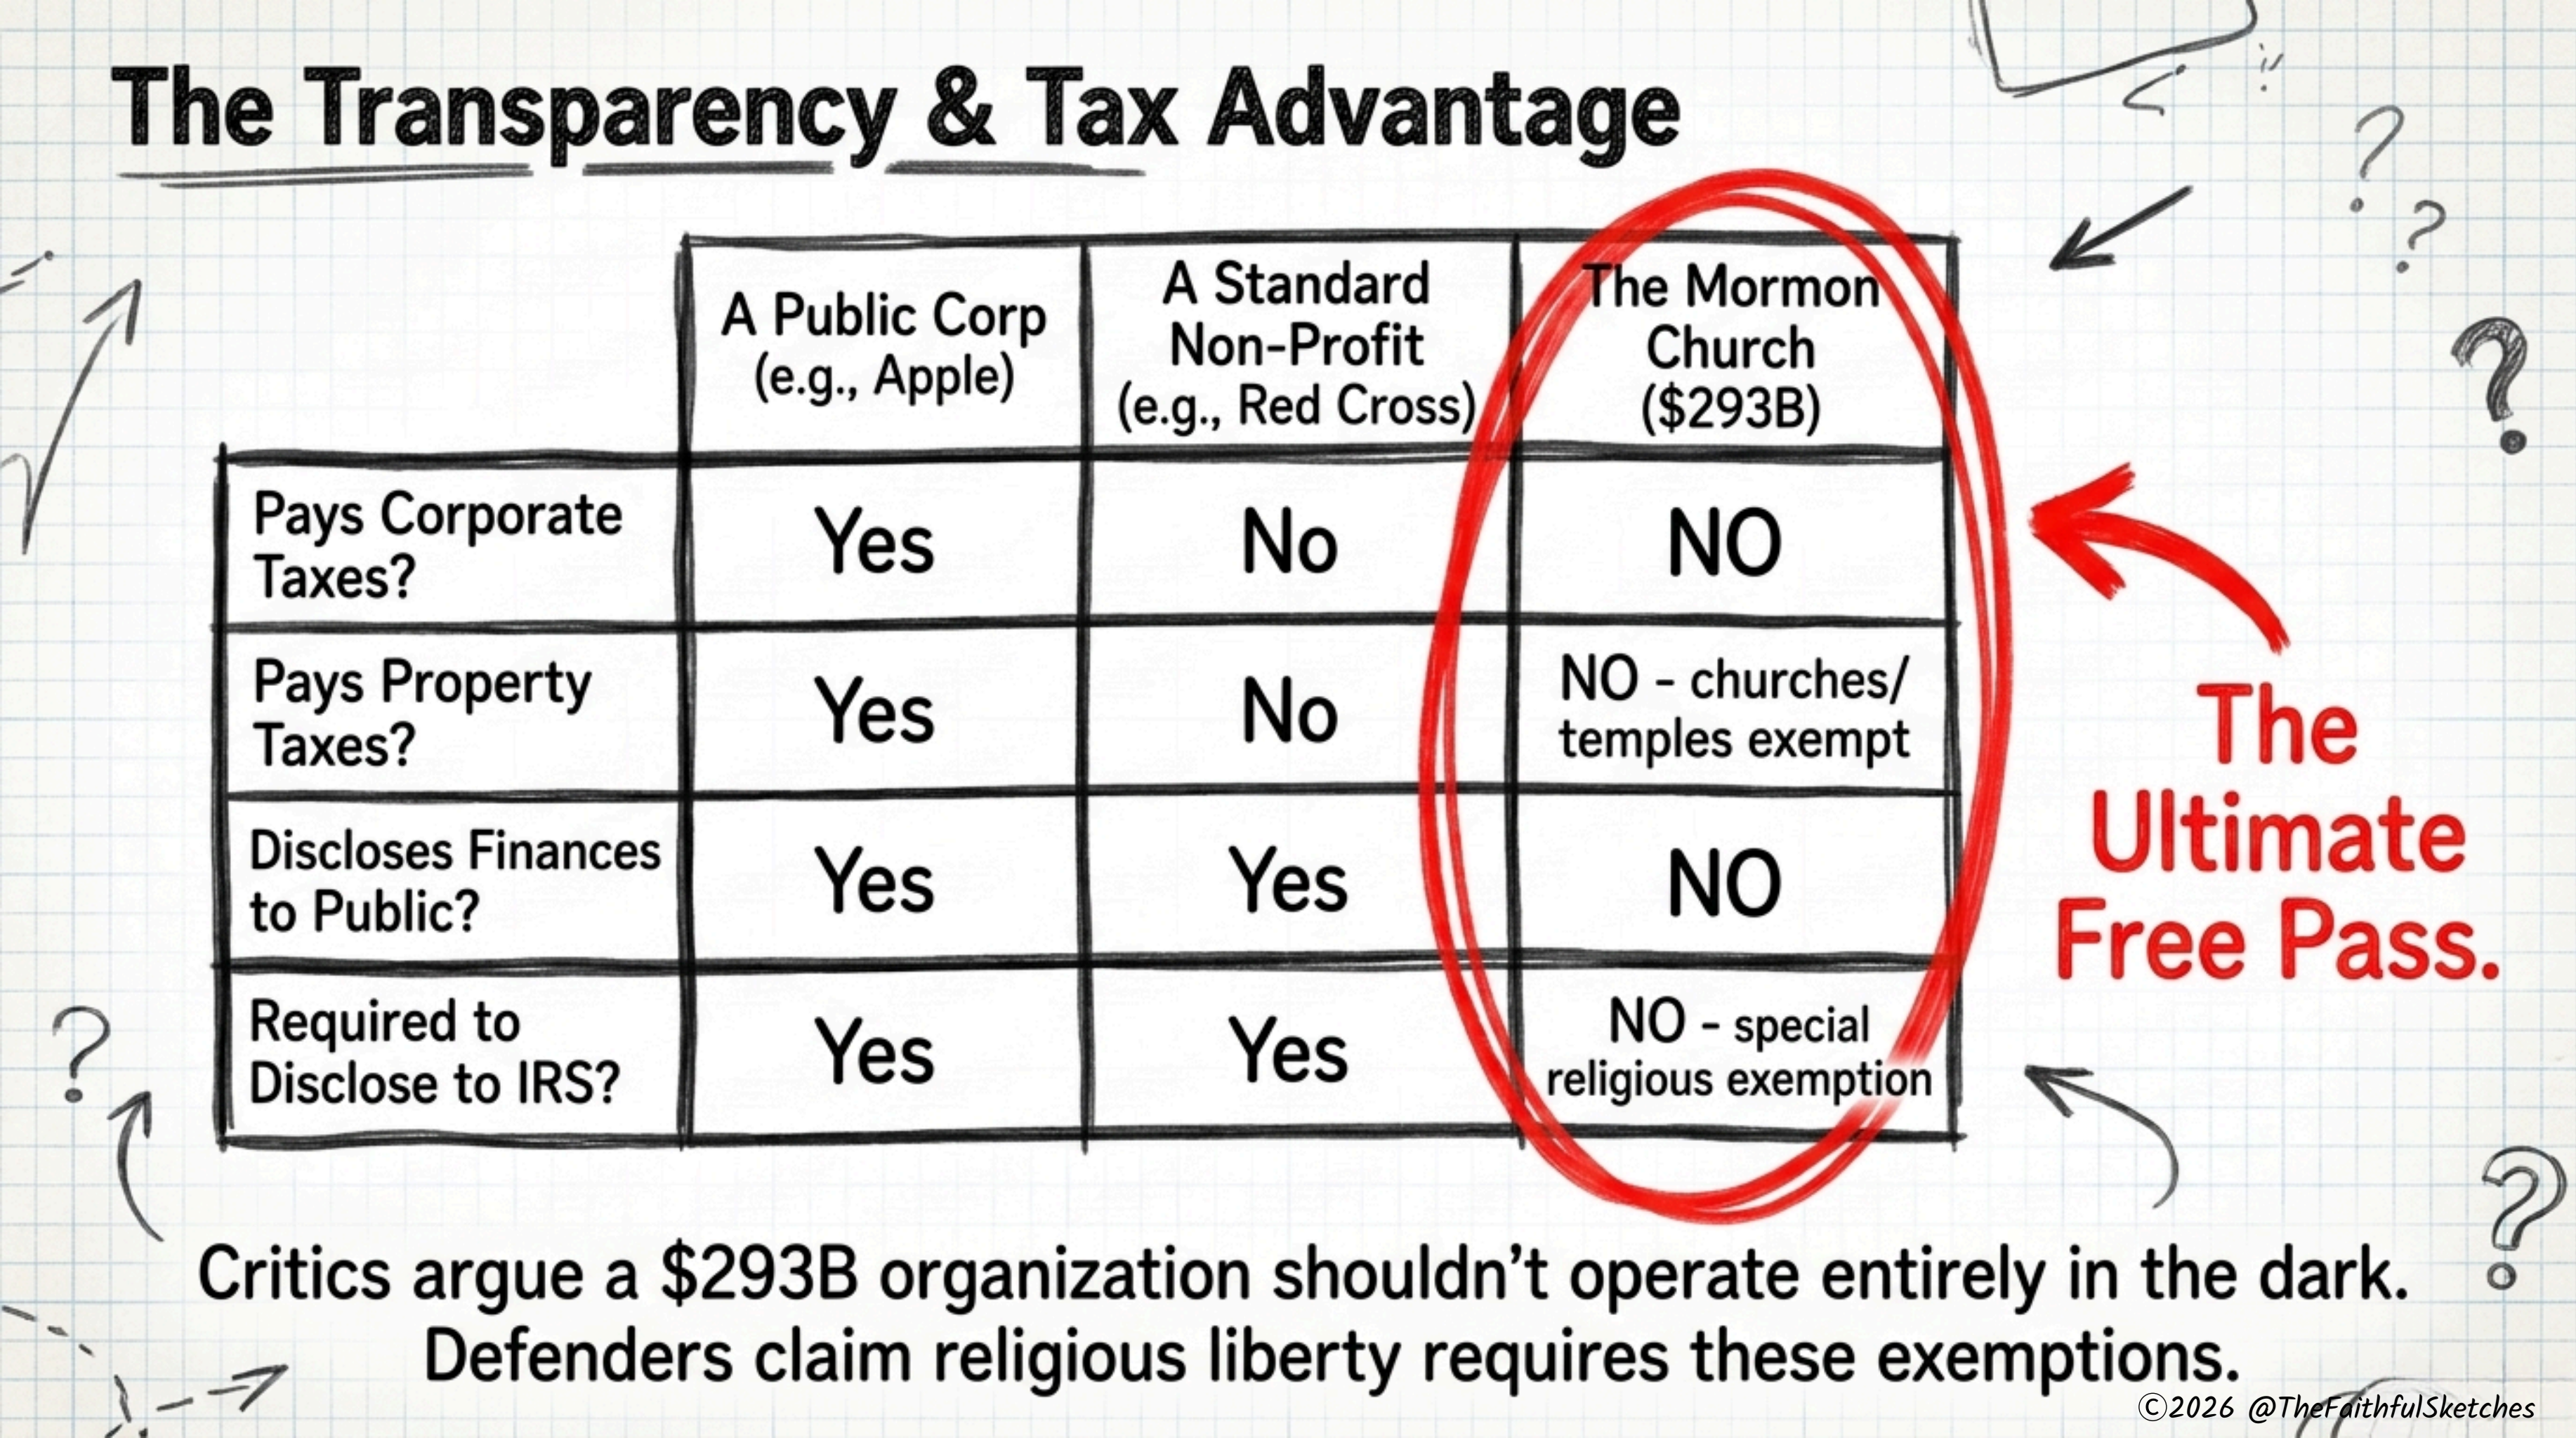

The SEC implicated the church's First Presidency in a deliberate, decades-long scheme to deceive regulators.
Fine: $5 Million (50x larger than previous similar fines). Defenders called it a 'speeding ticket.'

A Wealth-Generating Machine That Feeds Itself

Tithing comes in → Gets invested → Produces massive returns → Returns get reinvested. Year after year. Decade after decade.

The Transparency & Tax Advantage

	A Public Corp (e.g., Apple)	A Standard Non-Profit (e.g., Red Cross)	The Mormon Church ($293B)
Pays Corporate Taxes?	Yes	No	NO
Pays Property Taxes?	Yes	No	NO - churches/ temples exempt
Discloses Finances to Public?	Yes	Yes	NO
Required to Disclose to IRS?	Yes	Yes	NO - special religious exemption

The Ultimate Free Pass.

Critics argue a $293B organization shouldn't operate entirely in the dark.
Defenders claim religious liberty requires these exemptions.

The Charity Paradox

2024
Wealth Growth:

+$28
BILLION

2024
Humanitarian Aid:
$1.45 BILLION

The church points to its charitable work to justify its wealth. But in 2024, they spent $1.45 billion on welfare and relief... while their investment portfolio grew by an astonishing $28 billion. To critics, the math raises a deeply uncomfortable question.

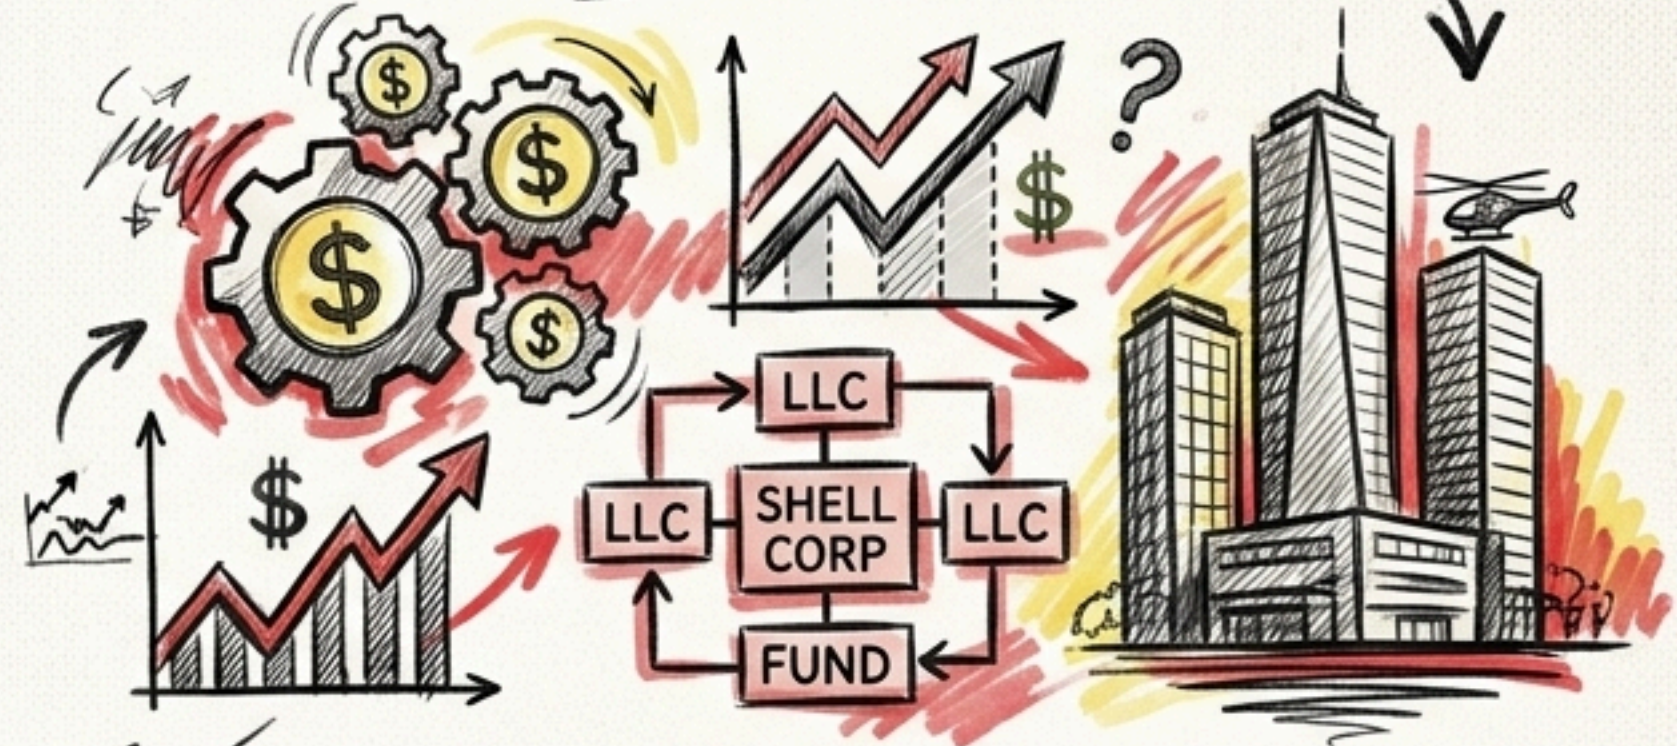

The Final Assessment

The Religion

17.5 Million Members.
Spiritual Theology.
Humanitarian Relief.

The Empire

$293 Billion Empire.
Secretive Hedge Funds.
Commercial Mega-Malls.

Is this a church that happens to have money?
Or is this a financial empire that happens to have a religion?

Unprecedented
in religious history.
